

Be Sunny

By K. Brendi Poppel

Be sunny, not sad...
Be glad, let go of gloom,
So the spirit inside might bloom ...
Make room for elation,
Send misery on a long vacation ...
As I align my mind with the Divine,
I allow my soul to shine.
So Lord, I most certainly welcome you in,
You are my power and now I can begin
To walk in your light,
night and day, day and night,
And ever delight in the endless unfolding
Of the love you are beholding ...
For this is where I want to be,
In sync with you everlastingly.
May it ever be so,
May you always be there,
Father of Forever ...
To go with you is my prayer.
