

Evermore

K. Brendi Poppel

Your way is my way, For Your way is the High way,
The path to Paradise and beyond, beyond...
The journey to eternity when earthly days are gone,
I shed no tears, I have no fears, for what lies ahead ...
Is a time to celebrate, not a time to dread ...
Each soul can grow and grow and grow and someday we will see,
The Lord whom we so crave to know... face to face with you and me.
God's children all are we and destined to be uniquely great,
As we learn to navigate...
far beyond what the eye can see ...
The unknown is the mystery
we all must face someday,
But when we put our trust in God,
He illuminates the way.
And every day is bright and clear as the story unfolds,
Love is our currency, much more valuable than gold.
Love's source is God who created man,
That is where this mortal life began...
Powerful beyond measure, more precious than all earthly treasure is our
Most Holy Lord,
Whom we worship and adore,
Be with us evermore, evermore, evermore,
Evermore, evermore, forevermore...
