

Into Eternity

By K. Brendi Poppel

Welcoming you, dear Lord, please see me through
Times of joy and sorrow, give me hope for tomorrow
In your light I shine, for you are divine
And I am glorified as you permeate my heart, mind and soul
For you are holy and in you I am whole
Growing Godward is my choice, in your glory I rejoice
For you fill me up with spiritual energy
And I am made more than I ever could be
As I walk with you into eternity ...
