

Into the Beautiful Beyond

K. Brendi Poppel

I can now begin to see beyond these mortal eyes,
Focused on eternity, where we all shall rise ...
If we choose to follow God and let the way unfold,
The mysteries of the universe are ours to behold ...
So I turn to You, I look inside,
Where I find my spirit Guide,
Praying for attunement, praying to attain,
Perfect communion, to fuse with You and gain ...
Insight and wisdom far beyond the material mind,
As we become one, I know I will find ...
The way ahead made clear, the beautiful beyond,
By letting go of the here and now when earthly days are gone,
Traveling on, traveling on, traveling on and on and on ...
Into the beautiful, the beautiful beyond ...
The beautiful, the beautiful, the beautiful beyond ...
