

Live in the Presence of the Lord

By K. Brendi Poppel

May the love of Jesus fill your heart,
May his light illuminate the way,
May the peace of God wash over you
And guide you every day.
For he came to reveal God to man
And all that we can do,
Is to learn to love as Jesus did,
To wear the other's shoe.
Look into your brother's heart,
Feel your sister's pain,
When we learn to love as Jesus did
Peace on earth will reign.
Peace on earth will reign supreme,
Isn't that our dearest dream?
To unite the world, all in accord,
And live in the presence of the Lord,
And live in the presence of the Lord,
Live in the presence of the Lord.
