

Use Me As Your Instrument

By K. Brendi Poppel

Use me as Your instrument
Make me worthy of Your trust
Fuse Your Fragment with my mind
And as my thoughts adjust to Your plan
I will do all I can
To further enhance my personal growth
For the good of God and man to glorify us both

By perceiving higher light filtering through the atmosphere
By receiving that insight which makes the moment crystal clear
By believing with all my might, the mental message, ideal idea
Is almost within my hearing
I can almost feel them cheering me
O Lord, I long to be nearer to You
I want to see Your point of view

Through the blindness of mortality
My mind must find the way
The clue to eternity is the answer to the mystery
Of the endless day
Undying, forever flying
In the eternal embrace
Of heavenly space

Everlastingly bound to the joy I have found

Around and around
And around and around
And Around and Around
And around and around

And
Finally fusing
With the Perfect Piece

Of God in me
My life with never cease to be

Heavenly heavenly heavenly heavenly heavenly heavenly heavenly
