

We Remember You

By K. Brendi Poppel

We remember you symbolically with wine and bread and words you said,

And you are really here, when we gather together in your name,
Christ Michael, noble hero to man and God, We proclaim....

You are the One, Holy, magnificent Son

Who knows what we need before we ask in prayer,

Who lifts us up from the depths of despair...

How is it you are everywhere, caring for your children,

Sharing in our trials and tribulations,

Rejoicing in our celebrations....

O, Master of Creation, we welcome you into our midst,

Our happy hearts are gratified, our souls so gently kissed,

In your loving presence, we are of one mind,

Joined with God's Creator Son, spiritually aligned,

In Divine Light united with the Spirit from above...

In this eternal moment, you are with us in your love.....

Copyright ©

All rights reserved by K. Brendi Poppel